

Director of Primary Industries Law

Purpose

My team members and I provide legal advice, and have input into policy and legislation reform, for all of the Department of Primary Industries (DPI) policy. We advise and represent the NSW DPI to support them in delivering their policies, programs and projects in a lawful, effective and efficient manner.

A typical day in your role

I like my job as it is varied. I have a mixture of major projects which might include working on regulations or a bill to change law. In my role I work closely with clients and my team.

Personal attributes

- High attention to detail,
- calm and focused,
- work collaboratively
- get along with people
- client focused,
- ability to problem solve with practical solutions.

Quote

“My favourite part of my role is having input into policy. I like that part of my job the best, as it has real world impacts and improves the lives of people in NSW”
